“ What a caring, loving and brave soul Barbie was. She was such an inspiration to Susan and I. If anyone ever deserved to enter the pearly gates of heaven, it was her.

“ I loved Barbie she was so funny! She always had time to listen and advise on anything I needed. We had many fun hours practicing our Fifth Sunday music. We always Prayed together. We always laughed even during our Prayers that God could use either of us. But he did ,her Prayers were for all her family to be saved. She touched many people in her life. I know she's singing for Jesús as he says well done good and faithful servant welcome home! She never knew the typical Baptist hymns I knew but always had a heart to learn them. She also could talk a blue streak. She had many nursing stories one of which she sang the Old Rugged Cross to a patient. She was genuine, one of a kind and I loved and will miss her.
