“ My favorite uncle as a kid. He was the youngest son and he would act silly and play with us to entertain us.....always worked, I always looked forward to seeing him. God bless

“ Uncle Jack's laugh was infectious. When accompanied by a twinkle in his eyes you could be assured that you were going to be entertained. He was a little mischievous and I loved it when he would stay with us when we were kids, living in Atlanta. We'll miss him.
