“ I am so thankful for the past thirty two years of being sister-in-laws with this beautiful, kind hearted woman. The last three years, I’ve watched her in so much pain battling cancer but she never lost her Faith in the Lord. She inspires me to be a better Christian. I told her all the time that she is by far the strongest person I know. Even though my heart breaks for all of us right now, it gives me so much comfort knowing she is not suffering anymore. I’ll cherish all of the memories we made. Alysia, I love and miss you so much already, until we meet again.
