“ Andrea was such a wonderful person. When she was younger I had occasion to know her so much better than later in life, but always she was kind, loving and generous. Prayer to her family. They have truly lost a jewel.

“ Friends are family that you choose. Even though we did not see each other much, I still see y'all like family. She is one of my roots to home which is now gone. I am sorry for your loss. May God Bless and comfort you.

“ PsychoSinger will never play another game of Words with Friends without thinking of Andrea. She kicked my tail almost every game. It just won't be the same.

We love you all.

“ I feel so fortunate that, in the last year, my family had an opportunity to get to know Andrea. She was a precious soul and unbelievably sweet. She was also a sincere Christian who set a wonderful example for the rest of us. Even with her busy work schedule and church attendance, she managed to have a Bible study in her home where people from her church family and her work family had an opportunity to make connections and share problems. She was a gracious hostess, a great leader, and a loving person.

I know that Andrea was also a great nurse. My husband's elderly aunt, who passed away just a few weeks ago, had been one of Andrea's home health patients. She was so excited when she found out we had started going to Carlisle church. She told us how much she loved Andrea and what a wonderful person she was.

We will miss Andrea so much, but we take some comfort in knowing how many lives she must have touched and that at this very moment she is experiencing true happiness.

*Rest In Peace Andrea! Gone way too soon my friend. I met Andrea 27 years ago at the University of South Alabama, Physical Therapy program. We quickly became friends, and at one point, roommates for our clinical training in New Orleans. She was a genuinely kind and giving person. A true Christian lady. I am not sure I conveyed to her how helpful she was to me during our college career. So thanks again Andrea!
My deepest condolences to Mr Scott, her boys, and Mr and Mrs Gaskin.*

“ I am so sorry to hear of your great loss. Recently I lost my dear mother, and found great comfort in the Holy Bible, like at Isaiah 25 verse 8 - "The Sovereign Lord will swallow up death forever, and wipe away the tears from all faces." Also at Revelation 21 verse 4, we find God's promise to remove both pain and death. For more comfort, I turn to the website at: www.jw.org (Search: Comfort)
