Anthony Lance "Tony" Horton

November 7, 1950 – December 15, 2025

Anthony Lance "Tony" Horton of Gadsden, Alabama, age 75, passed away on December 15, 2025. He was born on November 7, 1950, in Orlando, Florida, and lived a life marked by resilience, quiet strength, and deep love for his family.

Anthony was known for his steadfast presence and the way he showed up for the people who mattered to him. He carried himself with determination and lived his life on his own terms. Those who knew him will remember his character, his experiences, and the imprint he left on the lives he touched.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Don and Edith (Landry) Horton; his sister, Diane King; and his granddaughter, Peyton Atkins.

He is survived by his wife, ElizaBeth Horton; his children Tomi Horton (Kenneth), Wendy Cooper (Samuel), Missy Reece (TC), Jennifer Dorsey, Anna Dorsey, and Edward Dorsey; twelve grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

He is also survived by his brothers David Horton (Brenda) of Tennessee and Michael Horton (Nancy) of Minnesota.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Anthony's memory to the American Diabetes Association at diabetes.org.

A Memorial Service will be planned at a later time.

Arrangements are entrusted to Etowah Memorial Chapel.
