“ Hey nanny. I miss you, it's Kaia... You taught me a lifetime of knowledge and I wished you could've taught me more but I'm so thankful and glad for what you have. I just know you are in heaven, all your life you were pure and kind. Not a single person who knew you had a bad thing to say. I love you so much and it's been hard right now, but with you in mind I try and thrive to make it. Me and my boyfriend from kindergarten broke up, but after healing I found someone absolutely amazing and I wish you could've met him. He is so kind and sweet. He's adorable, and he's super smart. And you and him would've been great friends I'm sure but, the most you might can do is look down and see him. How he is, how he treats me and everything else. He's such a kind soul, just like you. I dearly miss you if that wasn't clear.. Hopefully I'll do this often though I'm not far from tears, remembering how you've helped me grow and mold into the person I am now is just amazing. London is now 5 and we had just got back from Luca birthday, your great grandson.. I do softball, and I'm a part of track for the second school year. Im hopefully doing volleyball and soccer. I want to be just like my dad. But the things that are dragging me are the family.. Anut B. and uncle buddy are now splitting. I'm so worried for the kids, I hope they'll understand. And it's been years since my parents split, not sure if you were around to know that. Noni is doing fantastic but.. They put down Crimson. Oh I miss her. Is she there with you? Or is there a part for animals..? I just want you to know, I miss you. There isn't a day I don't think of you. Thank you for teaching how to sew, play, find KitKats hidden, and find my love for fashion and design.

“ I love you and miss you. You taught me how to make a blanket and much more I am very very Honored honored that I had someone like you. I am now 9 the year is 2019 about to be 2020. And that means you have been dead for 4 years but right now it is 3 years it has been weird without you I am now in 3 and I go to gifted and it has been a month seems my birthday and so that means this month is November 2. I love you with my heart now I have a boyfriend I have had a boyfriend seems kindergarten I love my life and I love everything else. And I still have Roxy she is big and she is out side now. And I wear glass because I cant see. i will see you one day though. I am third grade president and I make As and bs. I have a lot of friends and one enemy. I don't like to have enemy's but sometimes I can't help it.
