

Don Hill

April 9, 1948 - November 29, 2020

Don Hill, 72, of Boaz, went to be with the Lord on November 29, 2020.

Services will be held December 2 at 3 PM at Fisher Creek Church.

Due to social distancing guidelines and Don's love for gospel music a special congregational singing will be held at 2 PM prior to the service. This will be led by his nephew, Lee Hill. The family would love all that will to join them in this time of worship.

Don was the organizer, founder, and trustee of Fisher Creek Church. Due to his vision many souls have been saved and countless memories have been made. He was so proud of his church and his church family. If you met him, you knew how proud he was. He believed in hard work and always said, "Hard work never hurt anybody". There will be a void at Fisher Creek Church and in the hearts of many that will never be replaced. We have comfort in knowing the best is yet to come.

Officiating the service will be the current and former pastors of Fisher Creek Church; Revs Jason Hallmark, Jimmy Umphrey, and Keith Haney.

Pallbearers will be Dustin Hill, Chase Bright, Rey Perez, Brad Cooper, Andrew Giles, and Sam Estock, Jr.

Honorary Pallbearers will be current and former deacons of Fisher Creek

Church and Donald Wright, Wayne Kitchens, and Bill Kitchens.

He is survived by his wife of 52 years, Nelda Hill.

“ We send our Love and Prayers to all of my sweet family. Sorry we could not make the funeral-celebration for Don. I cherish the memory of "the Hills" singing "Victory in Jesus" at Daddy's funeral, those strong beautiful voices touched my soul! Take care. With Love, Cathyrn Dixon, Jonnette D. & Charles Lovingood, Marjory D. Tidwell

“ One of the greatest men I've had the pleasure of meeting in my lifetime and one of the truest Christians i know . He led his life as an example of his relationship with God . I will always cherish the long walk and talk I had with him once . And will always remember him aggravating me for hurting his arm because I forgot to show up and help him build a pavilion . And I will always remember the look he could give you while sitting in that front pew . I know without a doubt where he is and shouted as he seen the light he spoke about , that he couldn't wait to see . Love you Don always will remember you.
