

Doris Mae Milam

June 17, 1934 - January 13, 2021

Doris Mae Milam, 86, of Gadsden passed peacefully into the arms of her Savior January 13, 2021. A private ceremony will be held. Doris lived in Gadsden all of her adult life. She spent many years substitute teaching at Gaston School where she developed many special life-long friendships. Many students remember her soothing, calm voice as she would read aloud stories from Reader's Digest. Doris loved her church and especially teaching Sunday school where she impacted countless individuals with the truth of God's word. She spent her whole life teaching us what a life lived by faith in Christ looks like and in her final days, she showed us the joy of passing in Christ.

Doris was preceded in death by her husband of 67 years, Ray Milam; Grandson, Noah Frasier; Great-Grandson, Forrest Johnson; Her parents; One Brother; and Three Sisters.

She is survived by Daughter, Tanya (Rickey) Frasier; Son, Jonathan (Jana) Milam; Granddaughters, Julie (Matt) Johnson and Alaina Milam; Grandson, Cooper Milam; Three Great-Grandchildren, Darcie, Frasier, and Finn Johnson; and numerous nieces and nephews.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to James Memorial Baptist Church. Etowah Memorial Chapel Directing “ Miss Doris you will truly be missed. You was always such an encourager. You came to me when I started coming to Church at JMBC you encouraged and convinced me to be the Nursery Director even though I was not sure I could do it .You supported and helped me me through it all until I had my footing .You helped me grow in so many wonderful ways. That encouragement is whàt led me into Children's ministry.If I ever missed a Sunday you ALWAYS came up to me and hugged me and told me I was missed. You always had a sweet word for me. I'm gonna miss that smile and wink you always had for me. You had one of the most BEAUTIFUL Souls I have ever met. I Loved and still Love you so much. Now you rest in the arms of Jesus and I will meet you there one day.
