

Doyle Ray Stover

July 26, 1934 - August 25, 2016

Doyle Ray Stover 82 of Boaz (July 26, 1934 – August 25, 2016) passed away at home on August 25, 2016. He was the youngest of nine children born to Samuel Cephas Stover (d. 1890-1969) and Sylvestia Bailey Stover (d. 1891-1969), farmers from Section, Alabama. Doyle served in the U.S. Army and was a boxer while stationed in New Jersey and Germany. As a resident of Boaz, Alabama for more than sixty-years, he was noted by loved ones as a kind, soft-spoken man with an industrious work ethic. He retired from Gold Kist in 1996, after twenty-years as a feed truck driver. Doyle was preceded in death by his wife of 56 years, Leona Morrison Stover (1935-2014), his grandchild Michael Garrard (1973-2001), his son Elton Garrard (1952-2011), and all of his siblings, W. Conley, Carnice, Buford “Boots”, Hansel, Raymond, Velma, Belinda, Delta, and Lora Mae. Mr. Stover is survived by his daughter-in-law, Marry Garrard; his son Danny Garrard and daughter-in-law, Kattie; his daughters, Shirley Stover Zlater and son-in-law, Jon Zlater; and his daughter, Angela Stover Rodriguez and son-in-law, Jesse Rodriguez; nine grandchildren; ten great-grandchildren; and one great-great grandchild. The family is grateful for the compassionate care of the Veteran’s Administration and Alacare hospice.
