In Loving Memory of Randall Hulsey

Floyd Randall Hulsey, 63, of Boaz, Alabama, passed away at home on March 14, 2026 surrounded by the love of his family. He was born on September 12, 1962, in Gadsden, Alabama.

Randall was a gentle man with a true and steady heart. He showed his love through action—through long workdays, quiet sacrifices, and simply always being there. For 32 years at GRR, he worked faithfully, providing for his family with dedication and integrity.

Always willing to lend a helping hand, Randall quietly made life better for those around him. He found peace on the water with a fishing pole in hand, where his calm, patient spirit could shine.

He was most proud of his children and cherished his grandchildren, who affectionately called him Pawpaw. They were his pride and joy, and nothing brought him greater happiness than their laughter and hugs. His nieces and nephews remember him fondly for his wisdom, his humor, and his unforgettable words: “Pull’em up or pull’em down.” Whether giving advice, sharing a laugh, or teaching a lesson, those words reflected his straightforward, hands-on approach to life—practical, patient, and full of love. Randall is survived by his beloved wife, Lanette—not his first love, but his last, and the love he chose every day—his children, grandchildren, parents, siblings, nieces, nephews, and many friends whose lives he touched.

Randall didn’t often say “I love you”—he showed it in everything he did. And to that, we say:

I love you more!

“ Uncle Randall used to walk by me and flick my ear and whistle. He'd smile at me because he knew it irritated me but now I would give anything for him to do that again! I'd let him do it all day if it meant getting to see him again and tell him I love him!
