

James Patrick Landreth

November 6, 1979 - December 26, 2015

Patrick Landreth, 36, died in a one-vehicle wreck Saturday morning. There will be a memorial service for Patrick at 11:30 a.m. on Thursday, Dec. 31, 2015 at Etowah Memorial Chapel. Friends and family are invited to share a special memory.

Patrick is survived by his mom and step-dad, Wanda and Jerry Mashburn, his dad and step-mom, Frank and Eileen Landreth, his step-sister and her family, Kim, Eric, Erin and Josh Brannon.

Patrick started kindergarten at Whitesboro Elementary, then on to Sardis High School where he was a drummer in the band, on the baseball team, and an honor student. He was a member of Sardis High School's Class of 1998. He went on to march percussion with the Million Dollar Band at the University of Alabama. He enjoyed driving escort for over-sized loads going all over Alabama and into surrounding states, working on computers, cell phones, and car stereos, tinkering with anything mechanical, and woodworking projects.

Patrick loved beautiful sunsets saying they were "his higher power showing off." His kind heart, loving nature, and willingness to help anyone in need will be missed.

His family requests no flowers. A Memorial Savings Account is being set up at Liberty Bank for those wishing to donate. Proceeds will be donated in Patrick's name at a later date.
