

James Marston Yarbrough

July 22, 1938 - April 7, 2024

James Marston Yarbrough 85, of Sardis City, passed away Sunday, April 7, 2024 at his home. The memorial service will be Sunday, April 14th at 3:00 pm at Etowah Memorial Chapel in Sardis City with visitation from 2:00 until time of service. Rev. Mike Goforth and Rev. Max Roden will officiate.

Marston retired from CSX Railroad after 35 years' service. He loved his Beagles and spent lots of time with them tracking rabbits along with his friends. He was a member of the Alabama Beagle Club and enjoyed the competitions. He was a long-time member of Sardis Baptist Church.

Survivors include his wife, Sarah Yarbrough, and son James (Jim) Yarbrough, brothers, Bob Yarbrough (Suzanne) of Titusville FL, Wayne Yarbrough (Donna) of Boaz, and sister Delores Bartlett of Boaz.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Bill and Jewel Yarbrough, and an infant daughter and infant grandson, a sister, Fay Collins and brother, Gary Yarbrough.

The family wants to especially thank Alabama Hospice and our dedicated caregiver, Vicky Haygood.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Alzheimer's Foundation or Sardis Baptist Church Food Pantry.

“ Sweet Sarah, You & your beautiful family are in our thoughts & prayers. 🙏 Steve & I loved you & Marston both as soon as we met as neighbors on the circle in Sardis so many years ago...& we were in church together at SBC (Bro. Bill Lett was pastor). And we've loved you ever since. ❤️
We'll always be “here” for you sweet “sister” in Christ & friend. 🌹
