Chad never met a stranger and never left any doubt where he stood regarding his faith or the quality of a restaurant. He charmed us all with his infectious grin and could quickly size up a dog for coon hunting potential and a white oak for board feet. Chad did nothing half-way: he loved completely, laughed joyfully, and believed sincerely, sharing Christ everywhere from the loading deck of a logging job to the bleachers at a ball field. His family was the center of his world and his greatest joy. Chad is with Christ in Heaven now, and there's a quiet in the woods where a red-headed rascal used to roam.

He is survived by his wife; Rachel Blackwell, sons; Cade Blackwell and Cole Blackwell, parents; W.M. and Carolyn Blackwell, sisters; Gina (Scotty) Rice, Terri (Jason) Clements, mother-in-law; Deborah Rhoden, sister-in-law; Sabrina (Jamie) Bozeman, brother-in-law; Adam (Tiffany) Rhoden, chosen brother; David Dewberry, a host of nieces and nephews and two great nieces

He is preceded in death by his father-in-law Alan Rhoden.

In lieu of flowers, the family has asked that donations be made to Sardis Baptist Missions Fund for Youth scholarship.
