“ I am so sorry to hear this news. I'm just learning this on Thanksgiving 2023., 3 years later. Continued prayers to his family. I met Jon @UAB in 2017 when he came to my office seeking resume and career advice. I think we last communicated in 2019. I'm so saddened to learn this. He had become my friend. I'm really in disbelief.

“ I met Jon when he was stationed in Italy with my daughter. It was impossible not to become instant friends with him. He and Miguel came and took me, my mother and my friend Judy to dinner our first day there because my daughter had to work. We had the best time. The next time I went to Italy Jon had said he wouldn't be there because he had to travel for work... and then surprised me by showing up. I was so happy that my daughter had such great friends while she was overseas. The world lost a great person and will never quite be the same.
