“ I was very blessed that God chose me to be a part of Kim's journey. We became sisters in Christ. We prayed together , we laughed together, we cried together, we loved together, we read the Bible together, we sang together, we worshipped and praised God together, we prayed together, we done life together. Kim poured her heart out to me many times. She loved her five children with all of her entire being, heart and soul and talk to me about each one individually. She taught me so much and I am forever grateful. The Family is in my prayers today and always.
