Lucille Campbell Minshew "Nona", 90, of Egypt Community in Altoona, passed away Saturday, June 6, 2015, surrounded by her children. She is the wife of the late W. J. Minshew, daughter of the late Bill and Grace Campbell.

Mrs. Minshew left a legacy of love and strength to her children, Patricia Nelson (Dan), Larry Minshew (Kathy), Pam Smith (Randy-deceased); step children, Connie Mims-deceased, Jerry Stanley (Audrey); 8 grandchildren, 8 step-grandchildren, 11 great-grandchildren, 4 great-great-grandchildren; siblings, Rene Walker (Perry-deceased), Morris Campbell-deceased, Floyd Campbell-deceased, Mary Sue Minshew-deceased, Nell Walker-deceased, Rev. Ernest Campbell (Sue) and many special nieces and nephews.

Visitation for family and friends will be held Tuesday, June 9, 2015 at Etowah Memorial Chapel from 4 to 6pm. Services will follow at 6pm in the chapel officiated by Gary Ford. Pall Bearers include Ricky Freeman, Mike Hawkins, Brian Snead, Lane Taylor, Jerry Walker, and Joel Walker.

The family would like to extend a special thank you to Alacare Home Health & Hospice.

Nona was a woman of faith who taught her children and grandchildren how to love and trust in God. She loved her babies, all 5 generations of them, and would never let you go hungry. Ending each conversation with her, she would always say these four words, "I love you more."
