“ My best memory of Nana is spending the weekends with her. She would always make us cubed steak and french fries for dinner. For desert we would have frog egg pie (tapioca as nana called it). We would watch Highway to Heaven, Golden Girls, Fantasy Island, and 227 together. She would let us get up super early on Saturday mornings to watch Casper the ghost. I loved watching her play softball - she was a pitcher in her late 40s or early 50's. We always got an Astro pop sucker and coke before each game. She was such a good athlete. But even better she was smart, and loving.
