Mike was born in Milwaukee, Wisconsin and moved to Alabama with his family in 1992. He worked for Progress Rail for over twenty years. He was a devoted husband, a wonderful father, grandfather and loyal friend. If you knew him, you knew his devotion to Jesus, family, and great friends. He was passionate about spending time with and supporting his daughters and many grandchildren. He loved hunting for treasures and a good bargain. He never met a stranger and enjoyed his time chatting and visiting with friends. Mike's great joy was helping others and lending a hand when needed. He was a jack of all trades and the ultimate fixer. He was intentional when it came to his relationships with both family and friends and he will forever be missed.

Michael was preceded in death by his parents Michael and Nancy and his brother Mark. He is survived by his wife Terry and children: Kimberly (Doug) Schmidt, Anne (Chris) Duckett, and Jackie (Ryan) Mayes, 11 grandchildren: Christa, Trevor, Hannah, Lucas, Sam, Ivy, Micah, Tobias, Letty, Cate, and Levi, brothers Tim and Todd (Terri) Kuzmic and a host of nieces, nephews and great grandchildren, extended family, and too many friends to count.
