“ I have know rev. Tucker for my whole life. He was the pastor at fairview baptist church twice. During his second time i got to know him and his family well. I have many fond memories of rev. Tucker. Going to lake winnie on a church trip, church services, visiting with him and mary at his house or my grandmother nannie lou ropers house. Rev. Tucker was a man if God and a very special person. He will truly be missed. Prayers sent to his family, may Lord be with them during this time. Love Tracie Crane.
