

Robbie June Rowan King

June 13, 1935 - June 1, 2021

Robbie June Rowan King went home to be with Jesus on June 1st, 2021, at the age of 85. She passed away in her home surrounded by her family and friends.

Robbie was a lifelong member of New Union First Congregational Methodist Church where she remained very active until her health started to decline. Those who knew her well, knew she was famous for Robbie June's Rules. Robbie had rules for everything in life, like how to act during a stressful situation, how to act in church, how to set the table, and even how to act when you visit someone in the hospital. Her family and friends know the rules well and follow them most of the time.

She loved to travel and spent many miles on the road with J.L. and friends.

Robbie was a natural born caregiver. She lovingly cared for her parents and many others as they aged. Child care was never an issue in the King family because everyone knew Grandmother was going to take care of the children.

Robbie is preceded in death by her parents Pat and Vennie Rowan, Brother Wayne Rowan and Sisters Jannette Rowan and Jackie Morrison and Daughter-in-law, Regina King.

“ May i offer my prayers, sympathy, and condolences in your loss. Mothers are a great gift from God and from the family members I have known she appears to have been a powerful influence through a spirit filled life in likeness to Proverbs Chapter 31, where she probably got her RULE list. Although I didn't know Mrs. Gibbs personally from what you have shared, I will meet and know her when this life is over. Sincerely and in HIM, Alfred Lane Johnson
