Ms. Rosa Nell Amos was a member of Sardis Baptist Church. She was a resident of Sardis City for 65 years. Rosa was the second born child of nine to Gene and Verna (Engle) Collins on July 7, 1933. Rosa married Mr. J. D. Amos, August 8, 1953, they had three children; Danny, David and Vicky. Rosa was a homemaker and no stranger to hard work. She enjoyed working outdoors raising animals, working in the garden and flower beds, most of all raising chickens. Rosa had a special needs grandson; Kevin Gregg and she said many times God gave her a long life so she could help raise Kevin. Ms. Rosa had a deep love for gospel music. She was a dedicated listener to WBSA and enjoyed the prayer hour each day. She was a faithful listener to her brothers, Donald and Jackie Collins for 21 years on the Sunday morning broadcast of the Gospel Jubilee. Ms. Rosa touched the lives of both children and adults throughout her 87 years. She will be deeply missed by her family and friends. Special Thanks to Shepherds Cove Hospice.
