She is preceded in death by her husband; Ralph Edmondson, grandson; Tony Biddle, parents Rada and Homer Brock, brother, Obed Brock, and sisters, Stella Smith and Nonie Price.

She was a member of First Baptist Church of Boaz. Sunday morning, we sang this song: Goodness of God by CeCe Winans. I couldn't help but think of MeMaw. I could almost hear her singing it with us. She never hesitated to tell anyone how good God was. I remember being at the funeral home when Pap Paw passed. She was in mourning but she continued to say how real and good God was to her. She was an example of praising God on the mountain top and in the valley. I know it was all about what Jesus did for her but she was never afraid to praise Him & tell others about it. Now she is eternally in the presence of her LORD & SAVIOR. She will be missed but her legacy and example will remain. I love you MeMaw and will always be grateful for your example of following Christ. By: Anthony Peters.

She will have a Graveside Service on Saturday, June 6, 2026 at 2:00 p.m. at Sardis Baptist Cemetery. Bro. Max Roden will be officiating. Pallbearers will be grandsons and great-grandsons.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations to St. Jude Children's Hospital.

Arrangements are entrusted to Etowah Memorial Chapel.
