

Terry Loretta Hill

January 18, 1947 - September 24, 2024

Terry Loretta Hill

1/18/1947 – 9/24/2024

Terry Loretta Hill died on Tuesday, September 24, 2024, at her home in in Guntersville, Alabama. She was born on January 18, 1947, to Wilma Saye Helms and Cecil Helms in Boaz, Alabama.

Terry lived in Boaz until moving to Rockledge, where she attended and graduated from Etowah High School. She had one child, Christopher Myron Palmer, from her first marriage to Myron L. ("Hoppy") Palmer. Terry later lived in Oklahoma and Texas, where she met Bobby Hill, to whom she was married until his death. She went by Loretta until later in life, when she worked at a small company where the boss was named Loretta, so she started going by Terry.

She had several careers, from insurance to CAD/CAM to sewing blue jeans. She liked experimenting with new hobbies and activities. She bowled, fished, gardened, did macrame, and painted landscapes and still-lives. She was a regular churchgoer until her health kept her at home, but she kept up by watching numerous services on YouTube.

Terry was under the care of Shephard's Cove Hospice of Marshall County The family would like to thank the staff of Shephard's Cove for their valuable service and her friends and neighbors for their help and support.

Service Information: A graveside service will be held at Hillcrest Cemetery in Boaz, Alabama on October 5th, 2024 at 11:00 AM. Family and friends are invited to attend.

Terry is survived by her son, Chris Palmer (Renee), her grandchildren, Cameron Palmer (Helen) and Morgan Jones (Todd), and her great-granddaughter, Violet Rebecca Jones.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations to Shephard's Cove Hospice or the charity of your choice in her honor.

Lorette and I were friends in grammar school. I asked her if she remembered the two of us being in a talent show in sixth grade. She didn't remember. I played the piano, and I thought she played the guitar, but I'm not sure. We sang an Elvis song, Love Me Tender. I'll always remember our friendship. She was a sweet. I'm sorry for your loss.
