“ Warren G. Gilbreath was my beloved uncle, the younger brother of my father, Virgil L. Gilbreath. Whenever we would have the privilege of visiting with him and Aunt Gene the last few years, we would hold hands and he would say, "You have your daddy's eyes," to which I would reply, "You have my daddy's hands." Uncle Warren was such a special man and I miss him. With love to all his loved ones, Claire Gilbreath Park
